

Factors Describing Cognitive Fatigue in Neurological Conditions

Location: Canada-wide

Number of participants: 150

Description: The purpose of this project is to explore how completing online computer tasks impacts your ability to remain focused and stay alert.

Language: English only.

Eligibility:

- Age 18-65 years old
- Diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis and/or Stroke, experiencing cognitive fatigue.
- Have access to the internet and an electronic device
- Are comfortable reading and speaking English

Participant requirements: If eligible, you will be asked to attend a 10-minute online meeting to determine your complete eligibility and complete a one-hour online survey.

Compensation: Participants will receive a $50 Amazon gift card for their time.

Institution: Dalhousie University

Contact: cfatigue@dal.ca